

Christmas with André Rieu

Testimonial

André Rieu's world-famous summer open air concerts in Maastricht on the Vrijthof have been a beloved tradition for a long time, with audiences coming to Maastricht from over 100 countries each year in July.

With "Christmas with André" at the MECC Maastricht, André Rieu founded a new tradition to invite fans from all over the world to his hometown in December and celebrate the most joyous time of the year together.

Testimonial

'We chose the MECC Maastricht because it is the only venue big enough to seat up to 12,000 people in Maastricht. Around 1,000 people are involved on stage and backstage: my Johann Strauss Orchestra, choir, soloists, technical staff, production team, catering team, hundreds of dancers, ice skaters, extras, ushers and many more.'

'We have redecorated the MECC from top to bottom. From the moment the audience enters the concert they are completely immersed in an incomparable Christmas atmosphere of a true winter wonderland, including a magnificent palace decoration and Christmas landscape, complete with snow, two ice rinks, lovely winter scenes, romantic lighting, red carpet, countless lights, 150 beautiful chandeliers, over 50 Venetian candelabras as well as a Christmas Market to enjoy food and drinks.'
