

Envida symposium 'A different approach to health-

Symposium: A different approach to healthcare; will you join us? Healthcare transformation in practice.

We all know that major changes are necessary in geriatric care, but how do you do this? How do you truly get an organisation moving? This was the theme of the Envida symposium. At Envida, they have been tenaciously developing Envida NXT for years and are eager to share their experiences, successes and lessons learned.

Testimonial

Facts & figures

Type of event	Symposium
Duration	One day
Number of participants	500

WEBSITE →

WACHT VIDEO →

'Working with MECC Maastricht is great. The MECC Maastricht team helps us come up with great ideas and ensures that our events can be planned and executed to our satisfaction.'

Roger Ruijters
Envida Chairman of the Board

Working in geriatric care is a valuable profession. Envida helps people in need of care in Maastricht and the Heuvelland area. It's important to them that their employees enjoy their work. After all, their smiles mean a lot to residents in assisted living facilities and neighbourhood clients. Taking control of your life, living in your own house longer, or moving somewhere that's just like home but in a different house. Envida's in-home and nursing care in Maastricht and the Heuvelland region supports and facilitates. Their clients are in control of the care and services they receive. Tomorrow's healthcare; Envida keeps up with developments in society and the healthcare sector. Together, they make it work: today, tomorrow and in the future. Loving your job: as an employee, they want you to feel at home in their organisation since caring for others starts with you. Envida wants to contribute to job satisfaction and health for all employees.

Testimonial

Facts & figures

Type of event	Staff party
Duration	1 evening
Number of participants	1,800

WEBSITE →

'Envida has offices in Maastricht and the Heuvelland area. For us, MECC Maastricht is a logical and central base of operations that is easily accessible by public transport as well as by bicycle and car.'

'Working with MECC Maastricht is great. We have had the pleasure of working with them several times and everything is always to our satisfaction! Whether this was a party or symposium, renting a meeting location, attending a Sinterklaas show after which we and our guests were welcomed in a separate room, or large-group access to one of the many public events held at MECC Maastricht. Regardless of the question or request, the MECC Maastricht team helps us come up with great ideas and ensures that our events can be planned and executed to our satisfaction.'

Roger Ruijters
Envida chairman of the board

